

Bogdan Żygadło

React Front End Developer

I am an ambitious and dedicated Junior Front-End Developer passionate about crafting modern and responsive user interfaces. I have a solid foundation in HTML, CSS, and JavaScript, along with experience working with frameworks React.js. My determination and eagerness for continuous learning enable me to quickly grasp new technologies and tackle challenges with enthusiasm. I strive to enhance my skills in UX/UI to create products that not only look great but are also intuitive and user-friendly. I am ready to gain new experiences in a dynamic project environment and join a team that fosters innovation and collaboration.
